EXCLUSIVE D-DAY SPONSOR EXPERIENCE

NORMANDY, FRANCE: JUNE 3–6, 2027

A special invitation only for Presenting ($50,000) & Title ($25,000) Sponsors to experience D-Day's history and legacy through a world premiere, exceptional battlefield access, and commemorative events in Normandy.

Join The United States Bomb Technician Association and The World War II Foundation in Normandy, France, for a curated series of experiences connecting the stories portrayed on screen with the places where history unfolded. From the Utah Beach Museum to the grounds of Brécourt Manor and the Richard D. Winters Leadership Monument, this sponsor experience offers an exclusive opportunity to bring sponsors closer to the history, people, and places at the heart of the film, while recognizing their vital support for preserving and sharing the stories of the World War II generation.

Signature Presenting & Title Sponsor Experiences*

June 3, 2027

- World premiere at Utah Beach Museum. Attend the film's world premiere (4 tickets for Presenting Sponsors, 2 tickets for Title Sponsors), including a reception, screening, and Q & A. Guests receive complimentary admission to the museum earlier that day.
- Behind-the-scenes Band of Brothers tour. Explore locations associated with the acclaimed series, including exclusive access to Brécourt Manor, featured in Episode 2, "Day of Days." The experience is led by Eric LeBoeuf, a highly regarded Normandy guide.

- Richard D. Winters Leadership Monument ceremony. Attend the annual commemorative ceremony at the Richard D. Winters Leadership Monument, one of Normandy's most visited memorials.
- Lunch in Normandy with filmmaker, Tim Gray. Discuss the documentary and the history behind it.

Additional privileges for Presenting Sponsor:

- Featured speaking opportunity. Address attendees at the world premiere at the Utah Beach Museum and at the June 6 Richard D. Winters Leadership Monument ceremony.
- Dedicate the film in honor of a WWII veteran: a legacy preserved on screen forever.
- Historic Bayeux Hotel accommodations for 2 at the historic Churchill Hotel (June 2 - 7, 2027: 5 nights).

*Specific arrangements will be confirmed directly with sponsors.
